BROTHERHOOD BEYOND ALL BARRIERS

HISTORY

Our pillars of Society, Brotherhood, and Remembrance were established upon the formation of the Alpha Chapter at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia on August 16, 1996. Our founders realized the unique promise of a Greek-lettered organization that instills positive values amongst its members, provides an avenue for leadership, and promotes self-betterment.

As their fraternity developed, these founders understood that they must maintain a constant and growing nationwide network in order to truly manifest their organizational vision. As such, several new brothers were inducted on August 22, 1998 in New York. At that time, eight men from three different universities were given the status of National Founding Fathers as they were the visionaries who had established a fraternity that would last for years to come.

BROTHERHOOD BEYOND ALL BARRIERS

SIGMA BETA RHO TODAY

Modern day Sigma Beta Rho has grown considerably since its inception. It has expanded from its roots on the East Coast to more than forty recognized chapters and colonies that span the breadth of the nation. This growth stems from a reputation for excellent, values-based programming, diversity amongst our brotherhood, and alignment with the ideals of many students who strive for a competitive edge before entering a post-globalized working world.

As an organization that prides itself on having individuals from every continent, ethnicity, and religion, we seek to foster enriching, cross-cultural discourse both amongst our members and within our campus communities. Through the efforts of our brothers, we have become the largest, most expansive fraternity of our kind in eighteen years. With each passing day, we strive to take one more step towards realizing the nationwide network envisioned by our National Founding Fathers.

NATIONWIDE NETWORK

Sigma Beta Rho Fraternity, Inc. has grown to become a national fraternity with chapters stretching from coast to coast. While these chapters are spread out across multiple states, we relish the opportunity to visit other chapters, thus adding a second layer of meaning to our motto, brotherhood beyond all barriers, beyond its original intention to emphasize our cultural diversity.

Our alumni are also deeply involved in the growth and development of our brotherhood as an organization. We strive to maintain and augment our status as a highly rewarding and widely recognized networking channel for our young professionals. Our alumni, who are involved in various career paths, contribute generously to this goal.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is new member education and how long will it take?

More than anything else, new member education is a learning period during which a potential new member becomes well-versed in the values and ideals of Sigma Beta Rho, along with its history and traditions. Most importantly, though, this period represents a chance for all potential new members to get acquainted with the brothers of the fraternity, and vice versa. Each class of potential new members is assigned a New Member educator who will lead them through this process. This New Member Educator will interact very closely with his potential new members throughout the process. He acts as the ultimate judge of their successful completion of the new member education program. There is no predetermined time period for the successful completion of this program.

If I work or am taking a heavy class schedule, will I have time for new member education?

One of the major virtues of any successful individual, and one we value highly, is the ability to manage his or her time efficiently. As such, time management is one of the key elements we stress during the new member education period. We understand that many men have obligations outside of our fraternity. We honor those obligations and will make every attempt to accommodate your schedule. However, it is for you to decide if you want to manage your time efficiently. You will find that we can be very flexible with respect to your class and work schedules.

Will my grades drop if I try to become a new member?

Grades drop when your work is either incomplete or late and not completed with quality. While new member education may take a considerable amount of time away from your normal lifestyle, along the lines of the above answer, effective time management is a must. As is required by most colleges and universities, Sigma Beta Rho's new member education program mandates study hours for every potential new member, fostering good study habits. Furthermore, New Member Educators and Academic Chairs monitor grades through weekly progress reports.

Will I be hazed?

No! Sigma Beta Rho is a strictly non-hazing organization. Our constitution strictly forbids brothers from hazing potential new members. Any brother who is discovered to have violated this policy will find himself expelled from Sigma Beta Rho.

How much will it cost to become a new member?

Sigma Beta Rho does not charge a fee to participate in the new member education program. However, the process may require you to purchase certain materials. These materials are affordable by the average college student.
